

Golfer of the Year 2026

Golfer of the year will follow the same format as recent years, with more focus on the full playing season. Prizes will be awarded for the overall winner, 2nd and 3rd place.

The majority* of closed Singles competitions will count toward the Golfer of the Year with competitions designated a points plan determined by Major/non-Major status. In addition, points will be awarded to the winner, runner-up and semi-finalists of the Nancy Cup.

This year the Golfer of the Year will commence after the Spring League competition and will conclude with the last scheduled Monthly Medal.

NOTE: A minimum number of 70 entrants is needed for a competition to have Golfer of the Year points awarded.

*Qualifying events will not be included, e.g. Nancy Cup Qualifier, Captain's Day Qualifier etc will not count toward Golfer of the Year.

Although a fully developed handicap is needed to win a major, this requirement does not apply to the Golfer of the Year points allocation.

IN THE CASE OF A TIE:

In the unlikely event where two or more players end the season on the same number of points, the player with the greatest number of 1st place finishes will prevail, if still tied then the greatest number of 2nd place finishes and lastly the greatest number of 3rd place finishes. If there is still a tie, we will declare joint winners of Golfer of the Year.
